EXTERIOR

The exterior of the Lagoon SEVENTY 7 is as impressive as its interior, offering both functional and aesthetic features tailored for luxury cruising.

The Lagoon SEVENTY 7 typically features expansive deck areas that are carefully designed for relaxation, entertainment, and practicality.

The main deck often includes a spacious aft cockpit with comfortable seating and dining areas, providing an ideal space for al fresco meals and socializing.

Forward of the cockpit, there may be additional lounging areas, sunpads, and trampolines where guests can soak up the sun and enjoy the surrounding views.

INDOOR

The interior layout of the Lagoon SEVENTY 7 is spacious and designed for luxurious comfort.

It typically includes multiple cabins, accommodating a varying number of guests depending on the owner's preferences.

The cabins are well-appointed, featuring comfortable bedding, ample storage space, and en-suite bathrooms.

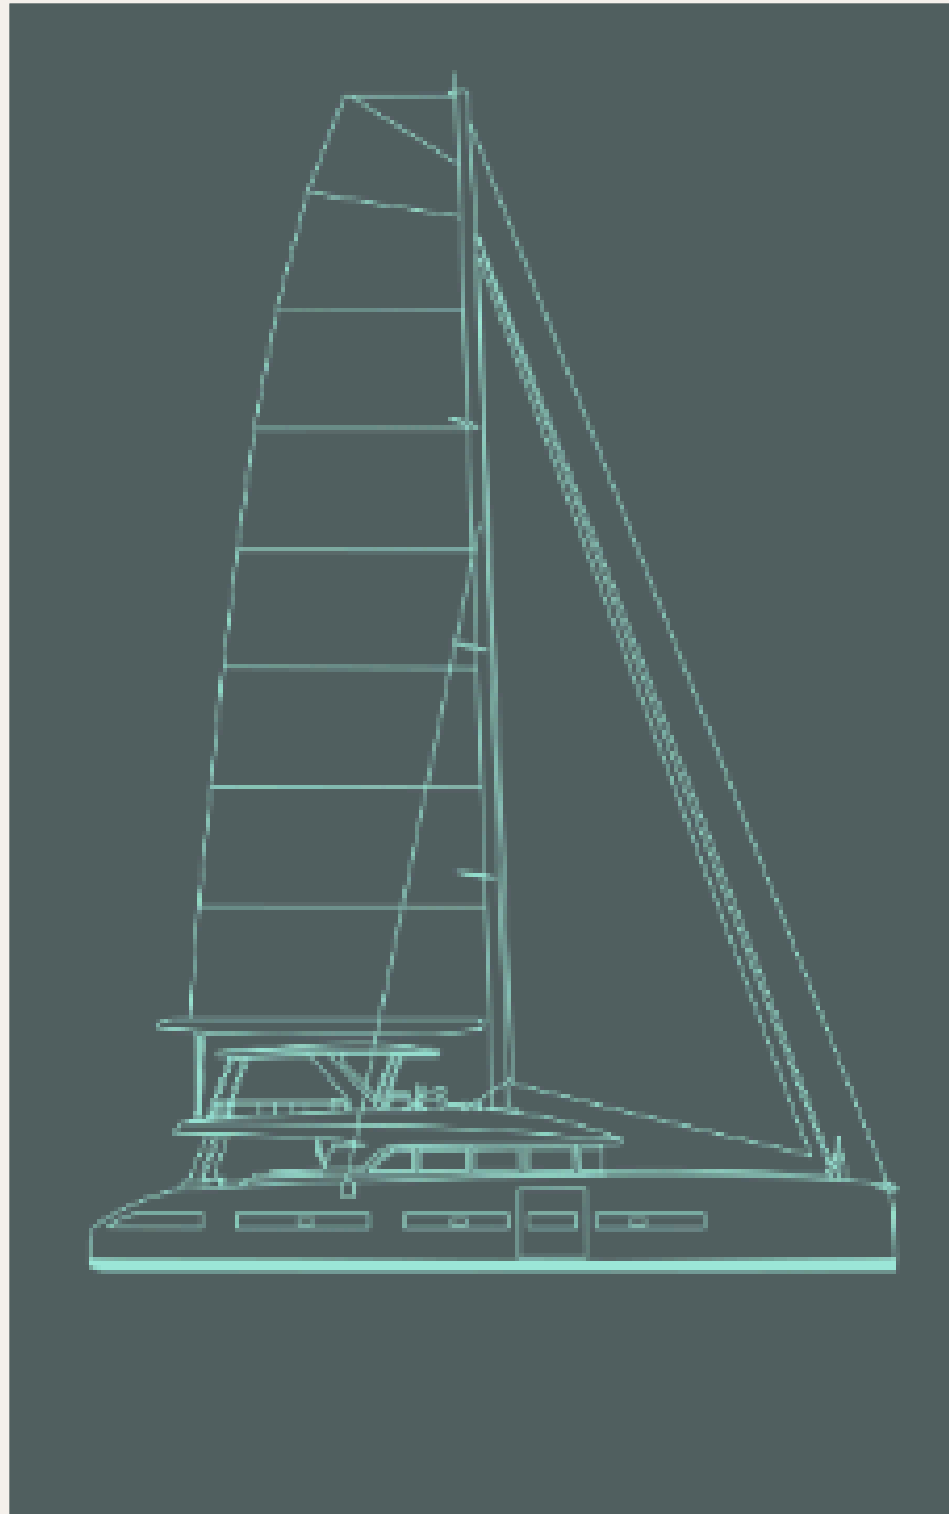

The saloon area is often designed as an open-plan space, integrating the living, dining, and kitchen areas seamlessly.
